

Escafeld Chorale was founded in 1969 as the Fossdale Singers by music teacher Ron Law (who lived in Fossdale Road). From that small beginning, the choir has grown to about 80 members, and along the way, changed its name to Escafeld Chorale, 'Escafeld' being an old name for Sheffield. Our Music Director, Nigel Russell, is continuing to train us to a very high standard, as evidenced by the very favourable comments we received after our summer concert. Our Christmas concerts, with their mixture of music and readings (plus seasonal refreshments) are also firm favourites with both choir and audience. For over 20 years we've been giving one of our Christmas concerts at Wentworth, with a repeat performance in Sheffield.

Friends of Escafeld Chorale.

Friends support the choir by making an annual gift of £40, for which they receive advanced publicity, two free tickets and a programme for each of our concerts for the following twelve months. Unless you wish to remain anonymous, your name will be included in our Register of Friends, and in each concert programme, with our thanks. Find out more from our web site, or use the ticket order form on the right of this flyer.

From time to time we have vacancies in all sections. If you would like to join the choir, please contact the Membership Officer at: membership@escafeldchorale.org.uk
